What Did the Woggle Bug Say?

of O.."

The Worgle Bug, wise man of the party, undertakes to answer all questions for his comrades from Oz. He has to answer one each week. His answer is not printed. The reader is left to discover it. The pictures and descriptive matter make this comparatively easy to the active mind. Both the pictures and the story are guides to the solution of the problem, and the question admits of but one correct answer. The puzzles require only ordinary skill.

$25.00 in Prizes.

To stimulate interest in the visit of the people from the Land of Oz. The Times-Dispatch will give Twenty Dollars in cash and five copies of Mr. Baum's interesting book, "The Marvelous Land of Oz," each month to those of its readers who send in correct or nearly correct answers to the questions put to the Woggle Bug by his companions.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

Less Loss of Life in Three Months This Year Than Last.

The number of persons killed in train accidents during the months of April, May and June, 1904, as shown in reports made by the ratiroad companies to the Interstate Commerce Commssion; under the "accident law" of March 3, 1991, was 197, and of injired 2,278. Accidents of other kinds, including those sustained by employes while at work, and by passengers in getting on or off the cars, setc., bring the total number of casualties up to 12,066 (677 killed and II.418 injured). In train accidents, the total number of killed, both of passengers and employes, is less than in the corresponding quarter of the preceding year, and the same is true of employes both in train accidents and in other classes. The reduction in the passenger death list is gratifying, but the yearly tables show, unfortunately, a harge increase, which completely neutralizes the decrease for the quarter.

The total number of collisions and derailments was 2,415 (1,180 collisions and 1.218 derailments), of which 176 collisions and 141 derailments affected passenger trains. The damage to cars, engines and roadway by these accidents amounted to $2,015,252. Months This Year Than Last.

IMPROVEMENTS BEGIN.

Contractors Making Good Headway With Culverts and Sewers Work was begun Menday on the culvert and sewer, commencing at the intersection of the Mechanicsville Turnpike and Fairmount Avenue and nearly a whole block has been completed. The work is being done by Contractors Maynard & Lord, of Richmond. A force of forty men are now employed and more men will be added in order to push the work forward. The Water Committee has made arrangements for water connections with Richmond and Fritmount citizens can soon have hot and cold water and other conveniences of a city. The expense to the people for putting in the sewers and culverts will not be very grest and they will be allowed as long as eighteen months to pay for them. The town is entirely free of debt and all bonds have been sold. At the last meeting of the Council, L. B. Morrison was elected as a police. Special Officer Edward Davis will leave in a few days for Carbon, Albemarle county, where he has work, which will necessitate his absence for several weeks. Work was begun Monday on the cul-

PLAY ARTILLERYMEN.

Lively Game To-morrow Afternoon-College and Fort Monroe.

Hencks, the traveling snowman, has the part in true Louis Mann fashion, and his work at times is so amusing that the entire audience is in laughter. It is when he attempts to give the definition of the word "squad" that he reminds one most of Louis Mann.

Beatr'ce Golden made a most capitvating "Wrenne." Like the little miss of the song which she sings, she has both a dimple and a smile. Girls with d'mples and smiles are rather the usual thing, but the sm'le of Beatrice Golden is quite another matter. It is one of those smiles that includes the whole audience, and makes every blessed one of them think that the smile is for his or her own benefit.

Edith Sinclair was qu'te acceptable as Belle Jimper, and made a good deal of the part. W. Freeman, as Donal Gregor, of the Royal Navy, was lacting both in volces and stage presence. However, his shortcomings did not affect the production very much. Well pleased audiences witnessed both performances, and at night the — denry was very well filled.

"Her Lord and Master" To-day.

'Her Lord and Master" To-day. Titles afternoon and to-night at the Academy Heien Grantly will be seen iin her greatest success, "fer Lord and Master." The play is one of similar charm limit to Katherine and Petruchio. Miss Grantly has her own company of metropolitan players, and a performance of unusual artistic merit is promised.

"Iris" To-morrow.

The Pinere play, "Iris," over which there has been so much discussion, and in which Virginia Harned was seen here last year, will be presented at the Academy to-morrow afternoon and night by Miss Jeanne Towler and a strong company.

pany.

Miss Towler is a newcomer to this civcult. In the title role of Iris she has splendid opportunity to display her talents, and it is said that she has already attracted the most favorable comment.

Playful Grandpa.

Playful Grandpa.

It is difficult for the audience to say whether "Poxy Grandpa," which is delighting hundreds at each performance at the Bijou this week, was made up from the pictures in the funny pages of the mapers or the pictures made up after "Poxy Grandpa," While the play is chock full of musical numbers, there is a pieasing little theme through it all—the laye of the old mun for his grandchildren, Joseph Hart has become to be a sort of "grandpa," to the members of the company to the members of the company. The play is to be seen to-day and to-morrow, with a final matines to-morrow,
